Plans Made For Local Assn. For Retarded Children

About 40 interested persons attended a meeting Wednesday evening, Oct. 25, 1967 at the Roscommon County Bldg. to hear Robert P. Pangburn explain the need for special education and training of mentally retarded persons. Pangburn is the Executive Secretary of the Michigan Association for Retarded Children. Pangburn stated that about 3% of the population of the United States are mentally retarded. He defined retarded persons as those who have difficulty in learning and difficulty in applying what they have learned.

He estimated that on the basis of population in the area served by the COOR Intermediate School District there are at least 780 retarded persons.

It was explained that there are many causes of retardation and many degrees of it. Formerly mental deficiency was blamed on heredity alone. Recent research has disproved this, and although a certain percentage is caused by this, many other instances may be attributed to pre-natal and birth and post-natal brain injuries, nutritional deficiencies, and many as yet unknown causes. He pointed out the need for much additional research since at the present time the cause of only 25% of retardation is known.

Pangburn said the greatest needs of the retarded persons are for:

1. Public acceptance and understanding.

2. Special programs to meet their special needs — such as special education programs in the public schools, sheltered workshops, and vocational training, and day care centers for severely retarded.

3. Legislation and appropriation of funds to take care of these needs.

4. Research.

Pangburn reported that 84% of the retarded, with some spe-

NORTHLAND YOUTH CRUSADE TO SHOW FILM

Youth from Baptist and Bible Churches within an area bounded by West Branch and Gaylord will assemble at the First Baptist Church of Prudenville for the November rally. A very recent 80 minute film entitled "Man of Steel" will be shown. The rally will be held Saturday, November 4 at 7:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited.

The color film was produced in the Yukon and at the Ken Anderson Studios in Winona Lake, Indiana. "Man of Steel" is a film of penetrating social and spiritual significance. The cast features, John Washbrook, former child star of the "Mr. Friend Flicka" television series, Harry Elders, prominent Chicago actor, and Jack Lester, West coast performer who appears regularly in television performances.

Rev. John Pruden, pastor of the Prudenville Church where the Northland Youth Crusade really will be held Saturday, November 4 at 7:30 p.m. believes every teen-ager and parent should see this significant film. Bring your friends.

Plan to Attend

All interested businessmen and citizens are urged to attend the meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 at the City Hall on the parking and improvement of the downtown district.

The newly formed study group has a full report to be presented at this meeting according to Bill Joseph, chairman.

Knights of Columbus Hold Meeting

Members of the Knights of Columbus Council 1982 attended Mass and Communion as a group at St. Michael's Church in Roscommon on Sunday, October 29. Reverend John Hoogterp, chaplain for the council celebrated the Liturgy for the Feast of Christ the King and preached the sermon. K of C members from Grayling, Higgins Lake, Houghton Lake, Prudenville, and Roscommon were in attendance.

Following the liturgical services, a breakfast was served the Knights at the St. Michael's Parish Hall. Roy Love and Mike Cherven were the committee in charge of the meal. Attorney James McNally of Roscommon was guest of honor and speaker for the occasion. His address dealt with his experiences as a prosecuting attorney for Wayne County prior to coming to Roscommon. He was introduced by Past Grand Knight Francis Gallagher, chairman for the day's program.

UNICEF Drive Gains $75.43

Appreciation for their generous response is extended to the people of the community for their support of the UNICEF drive conducted Sunday. The 7th and 8th graders of Michelson Memorial Methodist Church collected $75.43 which will be sent directly to the United Nations International Childrens Emergency Fund for use in behalf of needy children of the world.

Following the noon banquet, which was held at Shield's Restaurant, a panel discussion was conducted with Robert Kelly, English instructor at Alpena, as Moderator. Participants on the panel were from Alpena, Sault Ste. Marie, and Traverse City. Their topic was "Interesting Opportunities for Further Study." The members of the panel related their experiences while participating in foreign travel courses in Europe and Asia. They explained many opportunities available for teachers who wish to travel during the summer months in order to enrich their background as teachers of English. The conference ad-forms itself.

The office of the Housing Commission Director Lora Gould will be moved Friday from the City Hall to 308 Lewndale Drive in the Ausagra Acres project. Mrs. Gould will operate the Secretary of State's office from the same address, on Lawndale Drive, from now on.

Minor Attend English Conference

morning was presented by Dr. Stephen Dunning, Professor of Poetry at the University of Michigan. His topic was "Conversations with the Poets." Dr. Dunning accompanied his lecture with taped recordings of actual conversations and poetry readings by several contemporary poets. Some poets are revisionists, that is, they sit down and deliberately work out a poem through work and revision; others, he stated, "are inspirationalists." He also said he believes that modern poetry is once more becoming narrative in technique and is leaving the rebellion of the city for a return to a rural outlook. Many

Cub Scout Meet Set For Midland

All men and women connected with the Cub Scout program of the Boy Scouts of America are urged to attend a Cub Scout Leaders Conference Saturday, November 4, at the First Methodist church in Midland according to Albert T. Maasberg, president of the Paul Bunyan Council, BSA.

Maasberg said that the conference, not a formal training session, would discuss improvements that have been made in the Cub Scouting program.

Chairman of the conference program is Billy B. Hibbard, Leadership Training chairman for the Paul Bunyan Council.

Hibbard has divided the informal session into four parts with the first starting at 2 p.m., a discussion of the Bobcat and Wolf requirements led by David J. Zluticky, West Branch, Scout executive for the AuSable District of the Paul Bunyan Council.

Chippewa District Scout Exec utive Paul D. Price will lead a discussion of the Bear program, one step above the Wolf level.

The Webelos will be the topic assigned to Council Scout Commissioner Donald R. Petersen. Scout Executive Arthur E. Henry will wind up the two hours and a half session with a general exposition on the background and reasons for changes in the Cub program.

Hibbard joined Maasberg in urging every adult connected with the Cub Scouting program in the 7-county Paul Bunyan Council to try to be on hand for Saturday's conference.

The most successful Cub packs are those that have the full cooperation of all the parents on committees and leadership positions," Hibbard said.

Conservation education must be glamorized, are words used by Dr. Peter Tack, Fisheries Division of Michigan State University to emphasize the need for more education in conservation. He addressed a group of Michigan Association of Conservation Ecologists at the Higgins Lake Conservation Training School Friday October 13. The organization boasts two hundred members whose lives are dedicated to the study and teaching about Man's Environment. They are concerned that man may deteriorate his environment through air and water pollution, litter and improper use of Natural Resources that at some time in the future earth will no longer support human life. It is this eventuality that motivates Conservation Educators. They want every school boy and girl to have the opportunity to know something about conservation as it relates to man's environment.

Dr. William Stopp, the University of Michigan told how they taught environment in the Ann Arbor schools. They relate current problems and issues to the use of Natural Resources. Some one has to make decisions. The children are asked, how do they decide?

William J. Mullenore, Chief of Information and Education Division, Michigan Department of Conservation, told that the department will place more emphasis on Television Education. Allen Dighera, State Department of Education explained the departments material available to schools to assist in setting up school out-door laboratories for study of environment.

JV's Defeated At Roscommon

By Dave Wyss

The Grayling JV's lost their final game of what would have been their second undefeated season in a row. They were defeated by Roscommon, at Roscommon by a 12 to 0 score.

Roscommon scored in the second quarter and again in the third. No conversion was made on either side.

The Grayling boys, playing without their first string backfield who were called up to victory early in the week, just couldn't move the ball.

Most valuable player of the game was Bill Proulx. Other fine performances were given by a group of players who gave up a chance to play in their first varsity game to help their JV team-out.

MAKING PLANS

Mercy Hospital Auxiliary Ladies are busy making plans for their annual fund raising event, the silver tea. It will be held on Friday, Nov. 17 from 1 to 5 p.m. In the Viking Room of the Chief Shoppehagons Motor Hotel. All ladies are invited and men may also drop in for their afternoon coffee break. There will be baked goods on sale.

ATTENTION!

Up-to-date military addresses are wanted for the Christmas Mailbag. Please leave at Avalanche or with Margaret Griffon, Route 1, Roscommon.

Grace Andrews Retires From Social Dept.

Mrs. Grace Andrews retired October 22, 1967 from her position as stenographer with the Department of Social Services.

Mrs. Andrews began work with the department in October of 1942. Mrs. Esbern Olson was supervisor at that time.

Ten Vikings shared in the scoring in the game that saw the Vikings hit paydirt in each of the four quarters.

This week the local gridders are working to keep up the momentum as they face off against the Marcellona Ironmen squad this Friday night in the final game of the season.

In the first quarter Friday Grayling scored on a pass play from Mike Smock to Allen Lowe covering 20 yards. Paul King ran the XP.

From then on Pellston couldn't contain the Vikings as they scored three TD's in the second quarter, one in the third and three more in the fourth quarter.

In the second quarter Smock again hit Lowe for an 18 yard TD. King again ran the XP. With 54 seconds to go Smock passed to King for a TD. Dave Bailey ran the XP. Then with just 5 seconds remaining Bill LaMotte intercepted a Pellston pass and scored from 20 yards out. Chauncy Carr plunged for the XP.

With eight minutes to go in the third quarter Grayling scored on a pass from Bruce Burkett to Smock. Bill Kraus ran the XP.

In the fourth quarter, King scored on a one yard plunge with 10:43 showing on the clock. The conversion attempt was missed.

With 5:10 to go Burkett scored on a keeper play around the end. The XP was made by Gerald Petton. Then with just 34 seconds to go Burkett hit Smock for a 48 yard TD. Steve LaGrow ran the XP.

The Vikings had 176 yards rushing, 214 yards passing and were hit with 92 yards in penalties.

For the Mancy game, Coach Wieland said there was a possibility that Butch Hayes and Joe Thompson would be ready to play. Both have injuries. He added that Paul Mauren and Ben Pettyjohn would miss the final game.

With the JV schedule completed Coach Wieland expects to bring up quite a few of the players to the varsity for the Mancy game.

In other conference games the three team conference lead remained the same as Boyne City defeated East Jordan 32-0, Charlevoix downed Marcellona 41-13 and Gaylord won over Harbor Springs 26-7.

Final games around the conference will have Boyne City at Harbor Springs, Charlevoix at Pellston and Gaylord at East Jordan besides the Vikings-Ironmen game.

SHERIFF'S REPORT

Sheriff Arthur Clough reports the following activities for the weeks of 10/15-29/67.

Wayne Howard Moorhead was arrested by Sheriff's Deputies on a charge of D & D on 10/16/67 and entered a plea of not guilty. Trial was set for a later date. Luther Cain of Detroit was held for Camp Lehman and later returned to Jackson Prison. The highest number of inmates held in the County Jail this past two weeks is 7.

Investigated 12 PI, PD and car-dec accidents, 4 B & E's, answered 11 ambulance calls, assisted at the Kenneth Allen property fire, worked roving patrols on two walkaways from Camp LaVictoire (returned), made over 200 inspections of business and residential property, issued 65 drivers licenses, assisted 23 motorists stranded on highways delivered 3 emergency messages, worked day and night patrol in the communities of Frederic and Lovells, recovered one canoe from the AuSable River, cleared over 65 complaints of varying natures.

A word to motorists — be especially cautious in the wet and snowy weather in the areas with overpasses and bridges as these have a great tendency to freeze rapidly while the remainder of the road appears clear. Two serious accidents have occurred recently due to the above conditions.

Crawford County's Emergency Ambulance Service, under the Sheriff's Department's jurisdiction was a year old November 1. When private enterprise discontinued this service to the area, the Crawford County Board of Supervisors, aware of the strong need for this service delegated it to the Sheriff's Department. Deputies assigned to this division have received instruction in first aid, both beginning and advanced courses. Inventory of the Division includes: 2 ambulances, radio equipment, oxygen equipment, first aid supplies, blankets, sheets, pillows.

A total of 145 ambulance calls have been answered in this first year plus 22 emergency trips to hospitals in Detroit, Saginaw and Ann Arbor areas.

Many favorable comments have been received by the Department from doctors, nurses and the general public.

Mrs. Cynthia Jeanette Cook was born on a farm near Saline, Michigan on October 27, 1877. At about two years of age she accompanied her parents to a farm in Crawford County near the old Jack Pine post office, now known as Eldorado, and lived there until her marriage in 1896 to John G. Stephan. The couple made their home from that time at the property known as Edgewater at Stephan's Bridge on the AuSable. Mr. Stephan passed away in 1925. Mrs. Stephan continued to live there and in 1933 was married to John Knecht. The couple remained on the AuSable until 1934

TRAVERSE CITY STATE HOSPITAL LOOKS AHEAD TO CHRISTMAS

Traverse City State Hospital will be received in time to be sorted, selected, wrapped for individual patients and delivered to the wards in time for Christmas morning.

Early preparations are under way so that Christmas gifts and individuals are invited to have a part in the state hospital's outstanding Christmas activities. Through the generosity of groups and individuals, the hospital has been able over the past ten or twelve years to provide gifts for every single patient who would not otherwise receive them. A great many of the patients have no friends or relatives who correspond or from whom Christmas gifts would be received.

Gifts need not be expensive but they must be new. Such things as inexpensive cosmetics, games, puzzles, books, items of clothing, jewelry, billfolds, harmonicas, gloves, ties and many many other items too numerous to mention are very acceptable. Gifts should be received by December 1, if at all possible. Clubs and civic groups and other such organizations are invited to make Traverse City State Hospital's Christmas program one of their projects for this year.

Further information can be obtained by writing or calling the Community Relations Department, Traverse City State Hospital, Traverse City, Michigan. The hospital will furnish gift suggestion lists, delivery or shipping instructions and even gummed mailing labels for the convenience of donors.

It is not too early, and the hospital urges your support for this most worthwhile program.

Temujin Joins Bear Tourney Bow Family

Temujin (pronounced Tem-a-Gin) is the family name of one of the mightiest conquerors of all time—Genghis Khan. It is also the name of one of the newest bows in the Bear Archery tournament line for 1968.

A bold new design based on an unusual concept of balanced "opposites," Temujin features the exclusive Bear Golden Triangle of Stability. The bow is characterized by its forward thrusting handle, quick dampening action and nearly vibrationless limbs.

Temujin has a riser formed of a combination of East Indian Rosewood and African Bubinga. Standard with the new bow are the Bear Custom Arrow Rest, Adjustable Arrow Plate and the Bear two-way Inertial Stabilizer. Available in 66" and 69" lengths in draw weights from 25 to 50 pounds, Temujin is priced at $100 to $115 with the Premier Bowsight factory installed.

Temujin is available from all Bear dealers. For further information contact the Bear Archery Company, R.R. 1, Grayling, Michigan 49738.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By Elmer E. White

Michigan Press Association

"About 100 nurses are needed right now," at Sparrow Hospital," notes Roger Busfield, associate director of the Michigan Hospital Association.

Sparrow is a 465 bed hospital in Lansing. Its cry for registered nurses is echoed throughout the state. Urban and rural, large and small, many hospitals in Michigan are feeling the pinch of the R.N. shortage.

William Bresler, business manager of the Michigan Nurses Association, says "It's not so much a shortage of registered nurses as it is a shortage of working registered nurses." So many nurses have left the profession that there are just not enough to satisfy the demand, he points out.

Young, graduate nurses are soon lost to marriage and family. Many who return to nursing do not return to general duty in hospitals. Instead, they enter private, industrial or school practice. The pay is better and the hours more stable.

The nurses association and the Michigan Employment Security Commission have set up five-week refresher courses for "retired" registered nurses, hoping to attract those who have raised their families back into the general duty field.

The course runs eight hours a day, five days a week and combines classroom instruction with hospital duties. There is no tuition and a small stipend is paid to those who qualify. Legally, any registered nurse who stays registered with the state can practice nursing without taking a refresher course no matter how many years she has been away from the profession. However, most nurses returning after long absences want to be brought up to date, Bresler said.

Economic security of nurses is also undergoing a change, Bresler says. It wasn't until February of this year that nurses were brought under the Federal Wage and Hour Act. Until that time, some hospitals didn't pay overtime, he maintains although policies varied from hospital to hospital.

Wages are just now beginning to reflect the years of education and training required, Bresler maintains.

Busfield, reflecting hospital views, feels that nurses' wages are generally in line with other skilled professions. He agrees there are too many exceptions where pay is still low. He points to a recent survey published by the hospital association which lists the "average starting monthly salary" for general duty nurses in Michigan at $40, up from $39 in 1965. Maximum salary for general duty is averaged at $48 monthly.

Besides nursing has become the job of nurses' aides and practical nurses while registered nurses are now bookkeepers. Busfield and Bresler stress this is undesirable.

Although both men agree that R.N.'s are trying to correct the situation, they do not agree with what has caused the trend.

Busfield feels that the nurses, by constantly upgrading their profession, "upgraded" themself into keeping records and leaving routine nursing tasks to those less qualified.

Bresler maintains that "it just kind of happened." Nurses were always held responsible for patient records, he says. As "red tape" increased in hospitals, nurses were assigned more of the paper work. "It just grew like Topsy," he said.

There are three ways to become an R.N. in Michigan. Some community colleges offer an associate degree in a two-year program.

A three-year program is offered by many hospitals. Instruction takes place in hospital classrooms and students pay tuition the same as college students.

A four-year college program leads to a Bachelor of Nursing Science.

Graduates of all three programs must pass state exams to become licensed.

Higher pay and more respect for professional abilities must be apparent, says Bresler, before the current shortage of nurses improves.

The state-backed program is expected to entice some 700 nurses back to duty. Hospitals and colleges will graduate several hundred more. These will help, but they cannot fill the need nor solve the problem.

WASHINGTON AND

SMALL BUSINESS

By C. WILSON HARDER

Many economists have long decried as uneconomical sound the principle of pegging wages to the cost of living index as is done in the auto industry. The viewpoint of this school is that wages should be pegged to productivity.

Although this position has apparently not permeated Detroit at least one union, the International Garment Workers Union got part of the message.

However, there seems to have been only a partial understanding of this economic principle, or perhaps too broad a definition has been attached by the garment workers union to the term productivity.

For in a new contract just entered into with the New York area suit makers, there is a provision that any time a male worker becomes a new father the employer shall pay him a maternity bonus of $150.

Obviously, it can be suggested that there will be the agony decisions over the question what shall it be—the maternity bonus or The Pill? Many women and mental breakdowns have been created by agonies over decisions on far less important questions.

interested persons might be formed to work on these problems. The group expressed an interest in such an organization.

A vote was taken and there was unanimous agreement that a local organization for mentally retarded children should be formed covering the areas of Roscommon, Crawford, Ogemaw, and Oscoda counties.

Mrs. Arthur Crawford of West Branch was chosen as temporary chairman and Miss Barbara Maxson of Mio as Secretary-Treasurer, pro tem.

In the near future another meeting will be held to bring about a formal organization. All parents of retarded children are especially urged to become members of this organization, as well as all other interested persons.

Basil Godbold, Superintendent of COOR Intermediate School District, stated that at least eight teachers are needed for the mentally retarded in this area. He urged teachers interested in this field to inquire of school principals about scholarships available for special training for this work. There are already two rooms in the COOR area serving mentally retarded children. Other rooms will be established later if teachers are available.

John McCormack, Director of SevenCAP, reported that efforts were being made to establish a day care center for the mentally retarded under the Office of Economic Opportunity.
